

2018 ANNUAL AWARDS PROGRAM

In January 2018, the Northern California Chapter of the Association of Public Safety Communications Officials (No. CA APCO) announced the start of Association of Public Safety Communications Officials (APCO) annual nomination drive for the 2018 Public Safety Awards Program (PSAP). No. CA APCO is proud to announce a second opportunity for Public Safety/Service agencies to nominate that deserving someone or team for this year's Annual Awards Program!

The PSAP award categories include:

- Telecommunicator of the Year<sup>1</sup>
- Information Technologist of the Year<sup>2</sup>
- RF Technician of the Year<sup>3</sup>
- Line Supervisor of the Year
- Dispatch Team of the Year
- Trainer of the Year<sup>4</sup>
- Communications Center Director of the Year

No. CA APCO is proud to be one of the only APCO Chapters that offer northern California public safety/service agencies a second opportunity to recognize excellence in the public safety workplace. While the APCO nomination deadline may be closed, No. CA APCO is now accepting nominations for our annual local chapter awards. And this year we are proud to announce that in addition to a beautiful plaque our award winners will receive, No. CA APCO will be awarding scholarships (not to exceed $500) towards continuing education through the APCO Institute or P.O.S.T.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>5</sup> The scholarship recipient(s) will receive confirmation through an e-mail from the No. CA APCO Awards Recognition & Scholarship Committee. It shall be the responsibility of the recipient to ensure all pre-requisites for their continuing education course have been met. Reimbursement for the course costs will be reimbursed upon receipt of successful completion in writing to the No. CA APCO Treasurer.
